Fereleth Lee
Jacqueline La Cava

Mural @ Cnr West Nook Rd & Main St

Lot 2 "One Starry Night they came together..."

This wonderful world is represented here by native animals from all our continents. Animals that would normally be predator and prey, walk alongside each other in harmony and comradeship. The Children of Our Future lead the way, bringing the light of Knowledge and Peace in their wake.

Artist:
Damian Cazaly

Mural in Mural Park behind Mural 1

Lot 3 A Deeper Understanding

Look into Mother Nature, her face will tell a story Of Land that's seen destruction, and history rort with pain. Listen to her story, a secret she will tell: To conquer has no substance For life cannot be bound. To fly within that wisdom is power to show your heart.

Lot 4 Our Wonderful World

As caretakers, our choices today define our future. By respecting each others traditions and customs, may we continue to come together to become one multicultural, harmonious community. By recognizing the fragility of our indigenous flora and fauna, may we continue to work together to save our planet for our children.

Lot 6 A moment

This work is an uplifting reminder to sit together. To share a meal and celebrate life in the whimsical greenery of Tasmania, underneath the wattle blossoms and fern fronds.

To put aside our differences, tell night time stories and spoken mysteries like our forefathers did.

Artist:
Annette Matthews

Lot 7 ...And The World Will Be As One

At peace with ourselves we see with more precision the beauty of the world around us, especially this treasured island we call our home. Hope, compassion, generosity, empathy and creativity; against pessimism, conflict, greed, hate and destruction.

Artist:
Crystal Barbre

Mural in Mural Park on Sheffield Arts Centre Wall

Lot 8 Rising from Remembrance

These poppies represent remembrance of wars past and the hope we can learn to reject violence, and embrace the beauty of the world we live in. In learning to value all ways of life, we put violence aside, and create a brighter future.
